

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

© Becky Bailey

This is a ritual you might want to use to welcome your child home from school. It is one of Becky Bailey's I Love You Rituals.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star

(With a partner, hold hands up to make a bridge, fingers touching; wiggle fingers like twinkling stars.)

What a wonderful child you are.

(Rest hands on partner's shoulders.)

With bright eyes and nice round cheeks,

(Gently point to partner's eyes, and then pretend to draw circles on partner's cheeks.)

Talented person from head to feet.

(Hold hands up high and then bend down together toward feet.)

Twinkle, twinkle, little star

(Hold hands up touching each other's fingers; wiggle fingers like stars.)

What a wonderful child you are!

(Partners hug.)
